MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, WFOB

SUBJECT: BARKER, Bernard L.
(201-351639)

1. The Subject, an operational agent of both Havana station and WFOB, is currently in the Washington, D.C. area at the suggestion of Mr. Howard SPASS, in an effort to restore his citizenship status. He was interviewed by a representative of WFOB on 15 July 1961 at the Shoreham Hotel to develop all available background information concerning his loss of citizenship and previous steps taken to restore it.

2. BARKER was born 17 March 1917 at Havana, Cuba of a native-born U.S. father and a Cuban mother. His birth was recorded at the U.S. Embassy and he was recognized as having acquired U.S. citizenship by birth through the citizenship of his father. He traveled, not on a U.S. passport, but on an identity card certifying his U.S. citizenship. During World War II, he entered the U.S. Army Air Corps, was shot down on his 12th mission over Germany and was a prisoner of war for 16 months. He was honorably separated as a Captain.

3. In 1950, along with several Cuban-born, U.S. citizens who were war veterans, he entered the Cuban police force, where his bilingual abilities soon brought him advancement. He was, at this time, in contact with Mr. SPEARS, the FBI representative at the American Embassy in Havana, and also worked closely with the Treasury representative in breaking up two narcotics rings plying between Florida and Cuba. He served as escort for Mrs. MURKIN and Director on their visit to Cuba, for which he received a White House commendation.

4. In BARKER's opinion, he became the object of personal spite on the part of an unnamed Embassy staff member, who took action to revoke his citizenship status based on his membership in the Cuban police. In an effort to rectify his plight, Mr. SPASS, the Embassy FBI representative, sent him to Dr. Mario LAND, a leading Havana attorney, to prepare the case for a plea to regain memorable. According to BAKER's recollection, this occurred in 1952. Dr. LAZO compiled a formidable file on the Subject and was in communication with a Washington, D.C. legal firm, which BAKER dimly recalls as that of Edward Bennett WILLIAMS, who was to handle the case locally. A private bill was introduced in the 82nd Congress by Congressman WILLIAMS of New Jersey to restore the Subject's citizenship, but BAKER does not know what no action was taken on the bill. At the time, he was in financial difficulties and took a job as a tractor driver outside Newark for about 3 months, in which period he had no contact with Dr. LAZO, who, as BAKER believes, interpreted his failure to appear in the office as a lack of interest in pressing the case to a successful conclusion.

6. BAKER knows that Dr. LAZO and WILLIAMS had compiled a very lengthy and documented file on his background, including his military record and awards from the Army Air Corps. Currently, BAKER is traveling on a Cuban passport and is in the U.S. as an "ex" paroled to Bernie MICHAEL.

6. The Subject pointed out that Dr. Mario LAZO entered the U.S. about 4 months ago and is now in the Washington area; he believes Jim [REDACTED] is in contact with him. He knows Dr. LAZO is familiar with all details of his case and could confirm the identity of the Washington attorney who handled the litigation locally. BAKER recalls visiting the attorney's office in Washington on one occasion, and Berney WILLIAMS was the name he recalled. He believed the lawyer was involved in the Senator McCarthy hearings.

7. Based on the above information, the following recommendations are made:

8. Mr. James [REDACTED] be requested to ascertain from Dr. Mario LAZO the name of the Washington law firm which handled Subject's case in 1953, and the reason for the failure of the special bill.
